INTERIM & EXECUTIVE RESOURCING

Strengths

Murziline was able to demonstrate that she understands some of the agendas, and speaks very passionately about social inequalities and policy development. However, she seemed to lack the depth of experience to be credible at this level.

Administrative Issues

Murziline is available immediately. She is currently earning the equivalent of £135,000 pro rata. She is not in the process for any other roles.

Overall Summary

Based on her performance at interview, Murziline showed little that convinced she was ready for this level of role. Her lack of operational leadership experience makes her unsuitable for the role at this stage.
